EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY Family Well-Being Worker

Description

The Family Well-Being Program has been designed to support indigenous families in crisis and help communities heal and recover from intergenerational violence and trauma, and assist with efforts to prevent and/or reduce the need to bring Indigenous children and youth into Child Welfare and/or Youth Justice Systems.

The Family Well-Being Worker will report to the Family Services Coordinator and work as part of the Social Services team to provide integrated support services for Beausoleil First Nation, with a focus on promoting the safety and well-being of families and children through the strengthening of relationships within the home, their culture, and the community.

Qualifications:

- Social Work Diploma/Degree or equivalent, and a minimum 1-2 years experience in a related field or more.
- Relevant combination of education and related experience and knowledge will also be considered
- Indigenous ancestry preferred with working knowledge of Anishnaabe culture, traditions, and language
- Must be prepared for flexible work schedule

Duties:

- Coordinate family wellness planning
- Provide services such as in-home support, crisis peer support/counselling and ensuring clients get referred to appropriate programs and services
- Providing counselling and intervention services and programs to children and youth who have been exposed to and/or have experienced violence
- Assist families with information regarding programs and community resources and events
- Provide clients with information regarding budgeting, shopping, household and time management skills
- Case conferences with clients and internal staff
- Work with clients on goal-oriented and time-limited appointments
- Transport clients to and from appointments, as necessary
- Liaising and advocating on behalf of families
- Develop new parenting tools for families to cope with parenting challenges
- Support the aim of increasing a sense of belonging through cultural awareness and activities
- Work as a team with the Family Services staff, and the Social Services Dept.
- Work closely with Family Services to develop, implement, and monitor case management plans, providing regular follow-up and support to families ensuring continued progress & success
- Assist with the successful implementation of Family Well-Being primary objectives, such as the creation of community "Safe Spaces," and family violence prevention strategies
- Liaise with and strengthen our internal partnerships with the Education Dept. And Health Dept. In order to better serve and advocate for clientele
- Network and liaison professionally with community agencies and resources, in order to promote and increase the community's overall health & well-being

Other Requirements:

- Valid driver's license
- Reliable vehicle
- Current vulnerable police sector check (VSS) required within two weeks minimum of employment offer
- Must be willing to attain further training and/or certification in Child Welfare (if not the focus of previous education)

Hours of Work: 35 hours/week (some evenings & weekends required)

Length of Employment: Contract to March 31, 2022
